

COLFAX REPORTS FIRST QUARTER 2017 RESULTS

- Achieved first quarter net income per diluted share of $0.31 and adjusted net income per share of $0.35
- Delivered Fabrication Technology organic revenue growth and third consecutive quarter of Gas and Fluid Handling order growth
- Grew operating income by 37% and adjusted operating income by 11%
- Improved full year outlook

ANNAPOLIS JUNCTION, MD - May 5, 2017 - Colfax Corporation (NYSE: CFX), a leading global manufacturer of gas and fluid handling and fabrication technology products and services, today announced its financial results for the first quarter of 2017.

For the first quarter of 2017, net income was $38.5 million, or $0.31 per diluted share, compared to $22.6 million, or $0.18 per diluted share, for the first quarter of 2016. Adjusted net income was $43.7 million, or $0.35 per share for the first quarter of 2017, compared to $36.9 million, or $0.30 per share for the first quarter of 2016.

The Company reported first quarter net sales of $844.9 million, compared with $876.8 million in the first quarter of 2016. The decrease included a marginal decline from foreign currency exchange rates, an approximate 1% increase from acquisitions, and 1.1% organic growth in the Company's Fabrication Technology segment, which partially offset the expected decline in gas and fluid handling sales.

First quarter operating income was $66.2 million or 7.8% of sales, and adjusted operating income was $73.3 million or 8.7% of sales. The prior year first quarter operating income was $48.5 million or 5.5% of sales, and the adjusted operating income was $66.1 million or 7.5% of sales.

"We are pleased to announce strong first quarter results in a more constructive market environment," said Matthew Trerotola, President and Chief Executive Officer. "The 120 basis point improvement in our adjusted operating margins reflects ongoing work to create a more competitive cost structure and customer-focused organization. Our Gas and Fluid Handling segment delivered its third straight quarter of orders growth, achieving double digit organic growth for the first time in more than three years. Our Fabrication Technology segment organically grew revenues due to improved market conditions in most regions and notably strong performance by our teams in Europe, Russia, China and India."

"Over the last few months, we also made progress on the longer-term agenda. We announced the acquisition of Siemens Turbomachinery Equipment, which will strengthen and expand our air handling solutions, and we continue to see a robust pipeline of acquisition opportunities to build on our existing businesses. We also completed a successful senior note offering, locking in attractive long term interest rates."

Considering the improved end market conditions and the recently concluded notes offering, Colfax revised its outlook for the year, increasing its earnings per share forecast from $1.29-$1.44 to $1.34-$1.49, and its adjusted earnings per share forecast from $1.55-$1.70 to $1.60-$1.75. This outlook does not include the effects, if any, from the acquisition of Siemens Turbomachinery Equipment, which is expected to close in the fourth quarter of 2017.

Conference Call and Webcast

Colfax will host a conference call to provide details about its results on Friday, May 5, 2017 at 9:00 a.m. EDT. Non-GAAP Financial Measures and Other Adjustments

Colfax has provided in this press release financial information that has not been prepared in accordance with GAAP. These non-GAAP financial measures are adjusted net income, adjusted net income per share, projected adjusted net income per share, adjusted operating income, adjusted operating income margin, organic sales decline and organic order growth. Adjusted net income, adjusted net income per share, projected adjusted net income per share, adjusted operating income and adjusted operating income margin exclude Restructuring and other related charges. The effective tax rates used to calculate adjusted net income and adjusted net income per share are 27.4% for the three months ended March 31, 2017 and 29.0% for the three months ended April 1, 2016. Organic sales decline and organic order growth exclude the impact of acquisitions and foreign exchange rate fluctuations. These non-GAAP financial measures assist Colfax in comparing its operating performance on a consistent basis because, among other things, they remove the impact of restructuring and other related charges.

Non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, financial information calculated in accordance with GAAP. Investors are encouraged to review the reconciliation of these non-GAAP measures to their most directly comparable GAAP financial measures. A reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures presented above to GAAP results has been provided in the financial tables included in this press release.
